

MRS. NELLIE E. JONES.

The lovable and intelligent wife of Henry Jones, who owns real estate in Chicago in her own name and gracefully presides over a nice home at 6641 Evans avenue.

WATCH MEETING SERVICE WITH A WATCHMAN CALLING THE HOUR.

Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Services at Walters A. M. E. Zion Church.

Cor. 38th St. and Dearborn Sts.

Rev. H. J. Callis, Pastor.

Last Sunday was quarterly meeting and the services were well attended all day. At 11 a. m. Dr. T. H. Tipton, the presiding elder, preached a very appropriate sermon which was much appreciated to a large audience. At 3:00 p. m. the audience was somewhat disappointed in not hearing Dr. D. P. Roberts, who had promised to be with us. The sermon, however, was delivered by Dr. Callis. In the evening Mrs. Howard, the evangelist, preached to a packed house; her subject was, "After the Ball." She held the large audience with marked interest for more than an hour.

Monday, Christmas, was an unusual day in this church, the 5:00 a. m. prayer meeting, led by Brother Hamilton White, was largely attended, and the presence of the Holy Spirit was manifest. At 11:00 a. m. a large audience assembled to listen to the Christmas sermon which was preached by the pastor. It was a splendid effort and all present seemed to feel that the celebration of Christmas was well begun. At 8:00 p. m. Mrs. Howard delivered a stirring evangelistic discourse to a large audience and four persons united with the church.

On Christmas eve the Stewardess Boards No. 1, of which Mrs. J. B. Foster is president, and No. 2, of which Mrs. Mary J. Green is president, presented the pastor, Rev. Callis, with a clerical tailor made suit of clothes worth $75.00. Board No. 2 presented Mrs. Callis with a handsome waist. Board No. 1 sent a box of Christmas gifts to the family. The following persons sent kind remembrances to the family: J. B. Foster, S. M. Harden, Eli Cole, Mr. and Mrs. U. Collins, Mrs. Kate Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. De Bruhl, Mrs. Hetty Jackson, Mrs. Annie Feen, Dr. T. H. Tipton, W. J. Burdine, Mrs. Belle Adams, Mrs. E. Holmes, Mrs. Mattie Bell, Mrs. Sarah Harris, Miss Marie Carter.

Services for Sunday, the last day in the year, will be of unusual interest. Dr. Callis will preach at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. The Watch meeting sermon will be preached by the evangelist, Mrs. Howard, at 9 p. m. At 11 p. m. the closing hour of the year, will be spent in a service with the Watchman calling the hour at intervals the approaching end of the year. This service will be unique and interesting. Come early to get a seat.

On Friday, the 22nd, Sister Catherine Mack, of 3217 La Salle street, one of the devout members of our church and a faithful worker on the No. 2 Stewardess Board, departed this life. She has been in ill health for some time, but was only confined to her home a few days. The interment was near Cairo, Ill.—"S."

Joseph H. Hudlun, who has for years been a faithful employe in the Board of Trade Building; is fast recovering from his financial depression, and he now has some easy money on hand, which he will readily loan out to the boys if they have one or two diamonds rings, diamond stud, or a gold watch to put up for security.

DR. EDWARD S. MILLER.

WILLIAM H. BOWMAN.

William H. Bowman, President of the Marquette Club, (Inc.) 3010 State street, Phones: Aldine 3423, Automatic 75-829, was born in Springfield, Ohio, in August 1882, he received his common and high school education in the same flourishing city where his honored and kindly mother still resides.

In time his native town became too small for him, and while he was still quite young he wended his way to New York City, and with Chris Smith he engaged in vaudeville, as Smith and Bowman, and he met with much success in that line of business.

Having a longing for the far west he left New York, for that section of the country, locating at Goldfield, Nev., where he engaged in gold and silver mining with the firm of Burr, Britton Cook Co., and he was just in the act of picking up some easy money, when the union closed the mines down there.

Then he made a bee line for Seattle, Wash., and in company with Mr. Burr, he engaged in business in that booming city where he resided for some years and being up to snuff at all times he made and saved a nice sum of money; being broad minded and chuck full of new ideas and seeking larger and better fields for his activities, he disposed of his business interests in Seattle, and came to Chicago in May, 1911 and has cast his lot with its great and growing citizenship and after looking around for a business opening on the South side or on the stroll, he succeeded, after thoroughly, looking the field over, in securing a lease on the building at 3010 State street, which he has remodelled and elegantly decorated it, from the basement to the top of the roof, and he is just now putting the finishing touches on the interior of the second floor, which will be used for a first class cafe.

Not long after securing the lease on the premises, he incorporated and established the Marquette Club, he himself becoming its president, with Tom Clark, as its manager, and W. Raleigh Shields, steward and secretary and "everything of the very best," can be found at the Marquette Club, and from the first day its doors were thrown open to the public, down to the present time, it has done a land office business.

Mr. Bowman, is a prominent member of the A. F. and A. M. Euclid, No. 47, Portland, Ore., and also a member of Menelick, No. 2, Temple 37, Portland, Ore.

He is genial at all times, and a hale fellow, well met, which largely accounts for his popularity, and he is ever ready to extend the glad hand, to his hosts of new made friends and patrons.

WILLIAM H. BOWMAN.

President of the Marquette Club 3010 State street. A new hustling business man from the West.
